

This is a temporary proxy for TSS Switzerland 2011

This fourth visit of the TSS to the north-east of England was to Middlesbrough for the first time. The visits in 1933, 1971 and 1989 had all been to Newcastle to which Middlesbrough's James Cook University Hospital (JCUH) is now affiliated. 22 surgeons attended the present meeting, with 17 wives and Annette Johnston, widow of our former President Ivan Johnston who as Professor of Surgery had supervised the excellent last two Newcastle visits. Sadly Peter and Jean Craig could not come, but conversely there was pleasure that this was the 40th TSS year for the Thomsons.

This meeting was hosted by David and Vicky Macafee helped by our Secretary Brian Ellis and his wife Loveday, under the Presidency of Tim Williams at the end of his 3-year tenure. We stayed at the luxuriously spacious Crathorne Hall Hotel, near Yarm, convenient for access to Middlesbrough as well as having the facilities for our first evening and for the Annual General Meeting.
